

'Who loves...?' cards are great for getting a group chatting and sharing thoughts together

Who loves Spring flowers?	Who loves to watch dolphins jumping through the waves?	Who loves the smell of honeysuckle?	Who loves the smell of roses?
Who loves listening to the birds sing?	Who loves watching the sunset?	Who loves listening to waves breaking on the shore?	Who loves walking in the rain?
Who loves listening to children playing?	Who loves watching plants grow?	Who loves watching butterflies?	Who loves watching snow fall?

'Who loves...?' cards are great for getting a group chatting and sharing thoughts together

Who loves eating home-made cake?	Who loves listening to David Attenborough?	Who loves the sound of laughter?	Who loves watching the leaves turn golden in the Autumn?

These are just a few ideas, you can write your own in the blank spaces. Get people to take a card and read it out and give their answer then open it up for others to say what they think. You can follow on with another question such as 'What sort of cake is your favourite?' or 'What is your favourite season and why?'

'Who loves...?' cards are great for getting a group chatting and sharing thoughts together