

D-Day Pop Quiz

Q1.) What does the D in D-Day stand for?

Q2.) What year did D-Day take place?

Q3.) What month did D-Day take place?

Q4.) Which other countries helped the UK complete this mission?

Q5.) Is it true that D-Day was planned to go ahead on 5th June, but the British weather was too bad for the ships to sail?

Answers:

Q1.) The D stands for Day, so it is: Day-Day

Q2.) 1944

Q3.) June

Q4.) USA, Canada, Australia, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, France, Greece, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, and others.

Q5.) Yes, the weather was so bad on the 5th that the mission had to be postponed a day later and took place on the 6th of June 1944.